Transcript Orders – Frequently Asked Questions

7. How do I know how much to send as a deposit?

Once your order is received, an estimate of the total cost will be prepared and you will be notified by the court reporter or recorder as to how much deposit is needed to start preparing your transcript. A deposit of 75% of the estimated total is required. You will be asked to send the deposit in the form of a check or money order payable directly to the court reporter or a transcription company. The court is unable to accept cash for a transcript. Transcripts are not started and the time for delivery does not start to run until the deposit has been received.

8. How will I know when my transcript is completed?

When a transcript is complete, the court reporter or transcriber will deliver the transcript as requested in the delivery instructions on the transcript order, along with a bill for the actual cost. Your deposit will have been deducted from the actual cost. You will be asked to pay the balance in the form of a check or money order payable to the court reporter or a transcription company. The court cannot accept cash as payment for a transcript. If your deposit was greater than the actual cost, you will receive a refund check.

9. When I file the “Designation of Transcripts” form for my appeal, does this automatically order the transcripts I have listed?

No, you must also complete and file a Transcript Order form or, if appropriate, a CJA-24 request. The Designation of Transcripts is a document filed in the appeal process, but it does not replace ordering the transcripts with the Transcript Order form.

Note: For CJA appointed attorneys, please log into the court's CJA eVoucher system and submit a CJA-24 authorization as noted in the first paragraph above under question "1."

10. Does the court pay for my transcripts when ordered for an appeal?

No.

Unless otherwise ordered, it is the responsibility of the ordering party to pay for the transcripts to be used in the record on appeal.
